

XCstravaganza 2013

Yet another Stragnell Family Reunion

Guys and Gals

As I look out at the snow falling I can't help but think how grand the weather will be those first two weeks of August when we gather at Lake George for XCstravaganza 2013!

Registration

Registration is now open at the XCstravaganza web site. Thank you to those of you who have registered already but we've only heard from not quite half of those from whom we would like to hear. So, if you've not yet registered get on over to the web site today and fill in your details, even if they are provisional at this stage. You can always come back and re-register with updated information at any time. At the very least, for those of you for whom it matters, start talking with your employer to ensure you can get some time off during those first two weeks of August. You can see who has registered already here.

XCstravaganza is now on Twitter

We've set up a Twitter account (@XCstravaganza) for those of you who use such new-fangled technology! Follow @XCstravaganza and you should (allegedly) receive a tweet each time we publish a new post. Now what could be more exciting than that?

You can also subscribe to receive new posts, of course. The Subscribe button is at the bottom right-hand side of the site.

Calendar Dates

I've entered a whole flock of dates on the Calendar of Events on the XCstravaganza web site. I am grateful to Dad/Grandpa for much of the information but if I have anything wrong (or, if your birthday or anniversary has not been listed) please let me know and I will add it post haste.

Countdown

Finally, I've added a little Countdown widget to the site listing the number of days, hours, minutes and seconds until XCstravaganza kicks off. Only 173 days, 5 hours, 4 minutes and 30 seconds left. Nope, make that 20 seconds. Nope 19. Oh heck!

Love to you all,

Greg
