T May – Benefit Tourist Reforms are Working!

FECKLESS FOREIGNERS FORCED TO FUCK OFF OR BECOME CITIZENS

By Phil Space
Benefit Tourist Correspondent

Theresa May, the Home Secretary, announced today that her crack down on Benefit Tourists is already achieving results compelling would-be claimants to either return to their country of origin, or to legitimise their residency in the UK.

Mrs May referred to the example of one such Benefit Tourist, Charles Gregory Stragnell, who has gone through the complicated and expensive process of acquiring British citizenship rather than face forced repatriation back to Bongo-Bongo land.

After 40 years of residing on Benefit Street, Mr Stragnell became a British citizen on 6 February in a ceremony at Northampton County Hall.

While Mrs May was keen to proclaim her policies a success she was understandably less enthusiastic about the benefits of Mr Stragnell becoming a UK citizen. "It's his kind we want to keep out!" said the Home Secretary.

"It's clear that the measures I have introduced are having the desired effect of compelling many feckless foreigners to leave the country or to pay the extortionate fee we have set for becoming a UK citizen."

Policies Require Tweaking

"However, it is also clear that the process needs some fine-tuning to ensure wasters and wankers such as Mr Stragnell are excluded from these shores indefinitely," she added. "Hanging's too good for him."
