The Property

A handsome village house built of coursed ironstone under a slate roof with later brick extensions. Believed to date from the mid eighteenth century Framington House sits back from the road on the Upper Green of Moreton Pinkney. Features of note include an impressive vaulted cellar and concealed staircase. The rear portion of the house comprising utility room, sitting room, guest bedroom and bathroom could be self contained and ideal for teenagers/granny annexe.

Outside

Approached over a gravel driveway, access is gained to an oak framed and clad double carhouse together with off road parking for several motor vehicles.

Immediately adjacent to the house is a pretty south facing terraced garden with gravel pathways and perennial shrubs and herbs.
Beyond this is the main garden which is divided into a series of different styles from a lawn area, to productive vegetable and fruit gardens and orchard beyond.
